United Nations Association of the United States of America – UNA-USA

UNA-USA is a non-partisan, not-for-profit membership organization dedicated to building understanding of and support for the ideals and vital work of the United Nations among the American people. Its educational and humanitarian campaigns, including teaching students in urban schools, clearing mine-fields and providing school-based support for children living with HIV/AIDS in affected communities in Africa, allow people to have a global impact at the local level. In addition, UNA-USA's policy and advocacy programs stress the importance of nations working together and the need for United States leadership in the United Nations. The association is affiliated with the World Federation of United Nations Associations and a Program of the United Nations Foundation.

UNA-USA Vision

A world in which humanity is spared the scourge of war, human rights are honored, the natural environment is protected and the United States is a constructive member of the UN for the well-being of all humankind.

UNA-USA Mission

The United Nations Association of the United States of America is dedicated to educating, inspiring and mobilizing Americans to support the principles and vital work of the United Nations, strengthening the United Nations system, promoting constructive United States leadership in that system, and achievement of the goals of the UN Charter.

United Nations Association of Central Pennsylvania Chapter #151

"We must all work harder to repair the fissures and polarization that are so prevalent in our societies today. We must nurture mutual understanding and invest in making diversity a success. And we must counter and reject political figures who exploit differences for electoral gain."

U.N. Secretary-General Antonio Guterres' message on the International Day for Elimination of Racial Discrimination, 21 March, 2019
